

Martin High School minimum holistic offer

Martin High School offers an extensive range of extra-curricular activities that develop the variety of skills, behaviours and social competencies that our learners possess. Martin High school is committed to increasing the cultural capital of our learners so they are well rounded individuals that are prepared for modern careers and society. At Martin High School, each pupil is entitled and encouraged to access the following holistic provision at a minimum:

- Represent the school, house or form in sport
- Meet an author
- Visit a museum
- Learn another language
- Attend the theatre
- Learn a musical instrument
- Visit a University
- Travel to a foreign country
- Become a sports leader
- Raise money for good causes
- Represent the school council
- Go on a school residential visit
- Develop creative interests
- Meet people from a variety of professional backgrounds
- Perform in concerts and productions
- Debate relevant issues
- Voice an opinion through questionnaires and debate
- Represent the school through guiding and events
- Interview potential new staff
- Interact with governors
- Become a prefect
- Assist in the library
- Improve and protect the school environment